

Invitation to the Dance:

Dance for people with dementia and their carers (2001)

Heather Hill

This is the first publication in a new series on the Arts in Dementia Care. Heather Hill has provided a down-to-earth text, packed with tips for anyone who is considering introducing dance into their care setting. She never loses sight of the twin aims of providing enjoyment and opportunities for communication.

Topics covered include;

- Where Does Dance Fit In
- Structure of the session
- Materials of the dance session
- Photographs
- Dancing with people with dementia
- Listing of references, resources and organisations

$30

published by Dementia Services Development Centre
Department of Applied Social Sciences
University of Stirling, Scotland